DEDICATION

THE HALLS OF WINDSOR

The Duke Staff of 1959 is particularly happy and proud to dedicate its yearbook to a couple whose loving service extends beyond all duty, whose sincere devotion and loyal service to the school and the students have won our respect and love and a permanent place in our hearts.

One has been the Superintendent of the Isle of Wight Schools for 36 years. This job so well done calls for our most sincere recognition. The other has been a teacher at Windsor High School for 12 years, teaching 6 classes a day for the past 2 years. Even with her busy schedule she is always willing to lend a helping hand. Her loyal devotion, too, calls for our most sincere recognition.

Therefore it is with great pleasure and pride that we dedicate the DUKE of 1959 to Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Hall.

"Two are better than one because they have good reward for their labor."

CLASS PROPHECY

This morning as I awoke I realized this was a big day in my life. I looked over to see if my roommate, Carolyn Bissett, was awake but I saw that she was still asleep. I got up and woke Carolyn and then we started to fix our breakfast. As we started cooking we talked of the big day ahead of us. And it really was going to be a big day, for today we were going to be passengers on the first space ship to the moon! We finished putting last minute articles in our bags and then started collecting our papers and magazines to read on the ship. We had bought newspapers from all the big cities in the United States so we could see if any of our high school friends were in the news. I went to the closet and got down our Senior Annual so I wouldn't forget a single person. As we left our apartment I thought about how lucky we were to be going on this trip. Carolyn was especially fortunate to be going as the only nurse on the ship. And I was going to bring back a detailed report in shorthand on how the seats sat to my boss, the President of the Seat Sitters Company.

As we arrived at the spaceport I noticed most of the other passengers were already in the ship, so we hurried to our seat. It wasn't too long before we were out of sight of the earth and we settled back to look at newspapers. As I opened the first one I saw that the famous dancer Roland Turner had just arrived in Moscow, Russia to teach the Russians some of his very famous steps. His main purpose in this trip, the article said, was to better American relations with Russia. As I looked down a little further on the page I saw that the famous woman scientist, Edith Gwaltney, had just returned from the Swiss Alps where she had been studying the snowfall. Then I turned over a few pages to the fashion page, where I saw a picture of a beautiful Dior creation. As I looked a little closer I suddenly realized the model was none other than our old friend Betty Jean Crocker. I turned to the advertisements then and saw a half page ad advertising "the hottest cabs in town". Under that it said, "Owner and manager, Ryland Johnson". I turned to Carolyn and told her what I had already found out and asked her if she had found out anything. She said she had read that the famous multi-billionaire, Gerald Roberts, was now giving away a million dollars a week, tax free. Carolyn said the main headlines in the news now was the new law handed down by the Supreme Court forbidding people to smile. At the head of the Supreme Court was the newly appointed Ashburn Cutchin. Together we read in another newspaper that Lew Carr had just returned from Alaska where he had been hunting fleas for his flea circus.

I looked at my watch and discovered that we had been reading for three hours so I suggested that we go get a drink. As we started walking down the aisle I noticed two familiar looking faces. I stopped to get a closer look and it was Carol Anne Wilson and Toni Young. Carolyn and I took a seat next to them and asked what they were doing here. It seems they were going to teach the moon children English. Carol Anne asked us if we had seen Elliott Laine. She said he was on the ship and was going to the moon to hunt for uranium.

CLASS PROPHECY

The four of us again started in search of a cool drink. It was Toni who first noticed that it was Katherine Wells who was serving. As we talked to her Carolyn asked if she could tell us where any of our classmates were now. She said she had heard from a few of them lately. Carolyn English she reported was teaching math in Siberia. Linda Rimel had left Virginia and had gone back to Tennessee for some "good ole mountain dew". Mary Joyce Wood was teaching shorthand in California and the great baseball player, Johnny Keifer, has recently been chosen to baseball's Hall of Fame. Also Bobby Whitehead was leading all the troops of the Boy Scouts of America across India on a field trip. She also mentioned that J. C. Arrington and Willie Lee Wells had formed a society for the prevention of cruelty to farmers.

We started back to our seat and bumped into Elliott Laine before we got there. So naturally we all stopped to sit down and talk. We told him what we knew about our old friends and asked him if he could help us with the others. He said he had seen Joyce Outland a few days ago and she told him she had just had her first book published and it was entitled HOW TO TYPE IN 5000 EASY LESSONS. He also said that he had read in the paper that John Henry Byrum and Freddy Hall were in Congress now. They were both trying to set a new record in filibustering. He had also heard that Nelda Sue Garriss was the first woman to join the Harlem Globe Trotters and that John Staley Copeland was now their manager. He said as he was reading the comics the other day, he had noticed there was a new strip created by Herbert Taylor. John Thomas Carr had just broken the world's record for dribbling a basketball the longest. He said he read in a newspaper that Buck Jones, the clown, had just joined the world's largest circus.

As I picked up my old annual, I realized there were two boys that no one had mentioned, Russell Powell and J. L. Rose. I asked the others if they had heard anything about them. But everyone just looked blank. It seems no one has heard a word from them for almost two years.

Suddenly a blaring voice came over the lous speaker announcing that we had reached the moon and were getting ready to land. Soon I felt a light bump and knew we had reached our destination. As I gathered up my things and stepped out into the air I noticed four objects racing toward the ship. I called the others and we stood back to watch. As they came closer it seemed to be two men and two animals of some kind. All at the same time we realized that J. L. and Russell had chased two steers all the way to the moon!

CLASS HISTORY

Only four years ago we became "Sloppy Freshmen". The students coming to Windsor High from Carrsville and Isle of Wight Elementary were full of anticipation and excitement for the things they would find in their new school. Linda Rimmel from Tennessee joined us at the beginning of the second semester.

We had all become close friends by the end of our freshman year.

The school bells rang for us again in 1956 when we were known as "Saucy Sophomores." Barbara Palmer, from Suffolk joined us this year bringing us some of Suffolk's fads and fashions. This, our quietest year, soon came to a close.

One of our busiest years started in September of 1957. The second week of school we ordered our school rings. Then came the long wait of two and half months before the big day of their arrival.

While waiting for them we participated in the celebration of homecoming. The queen and three of her attendants were chosen from our class.

March 21, 1958 was one of our most exciting days. We became actors and actresses for one night when we presented our Junior Play, "Just Ducky."

Our "Stairway to the Stars" was completed on May 9th at the Shriners Club, where the Seniors were our guest at the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom.

We became "Dignified Seniors" in September of 1958. Our year as seniors has been one of the greatest and most memorable with our Senior play, "Father Be Calm", our annual and our Senior Prom given to us by our close friends, the members of the Junior class.

Today as we leave we will all take this one last thought with us, which we chose as our motto: "Climb as though you'd live forever, live as though you'd die tomorrow".

CLASS MOTTO

"Climb as though you'd live forever, live as though you'd die tomorrow."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of '59 being of unsound minds and failing memories for history dates, do hereby frame and record our last will and testament.

Gerald Roberts leaves Joe Blythe his little black book and hopes he can read it.

Carolyn English leaves Kay Johnson a slightly used shorthand book in hopes she can make good use of it.

Lew Carr leaves Kathryn Rhodes his Senior Superlative "Most Talkative" and hopes she will someday catch up with him.

Joyce Outland leaves David Blythe a worn out biology book in hopes his love for insects is greater than hers.

Carol Anne Wilson leaves Mary Jean Atkins an old reed from her clarinet and hopes she doesn't get as many squeaks as she did.

Katherine Wells leaves her Senior Superlative "Most Dignified" to JoAnne Pierce and Martha Lee Godwin in hopes that a little has rubbed off on them this year.

Nelda Garris leaves Carolyn Rawls a free ticket to Darden's Scout Camp.

J. L. Rose, Jr. leaves Wm. Earl Wilkins his physics grades and hopes he can improve them.

Linda Rimel leaves Roger White her "hillbilly drawl".

Ashburn Cutchin and Carolyn Bissett leaves Mary Lou Turner, Nancy Gay Hall, and Janie Holland their ability and ingenuity to produce the best annual yet.

Betty Crocker leaves Judy White her Senior Superlative "Wittiest" and hopes she will never catch up with her.

Wm. Jones leaves Kerry Butler his old football shoes so he won't hurt the quarter back with sharp cleats.

Mary Joyce Wood leaves Helen Tomlin her nickname "Sticky" in hopes she will some day find out it's meaning.

Edith Lane Gwaltney leaves Pete Beale her little book "Hints on Arguing."

Barbara Palmer leaves Al Johnson a finger splint in hopes that his finger will someday be straight.

Ryland Johnson leaves Bert Nurnery and Carlton Outland his love for speed.

Elliott Laine leaves JoAnne Rose his Senior Superlative "Most Likely To Succeed."

Herbert Taylor leaves David Bowden his love for government.

John Henry Byrum leaves James Bland his daredevil driving.

John Thomas Carr leaves Wm. Duck his ability to participate in sports.

Russell Powell leaves Kenneth Marshall his courting ability.

Bobby Whitehead and Johnnie Keifer leave Johnnie Bradshaw their ability to get along with girls.

John Staley Copeland leaves Tommy Buxton the privilege of keeping an eye on Nelda while she is working.

Willie Wells leaves James Robert Cobb his quiet manner.

Roland Turner leaves Billy Duck his diploma in hopes they both get one.

Toni Young leaves Kathleen Umphlette her dancing feet in hopes that she will keep up with Topsy Part II as well as she and Lew did.

J. C. Arrington leaves Tena Arrington his quiet ways in hopes that classes will be quieter.

Freddie Hall - Just leaves!!!!
